

BRIAN ADLAWAN

WEB DEVELOPER

I'm a web developer passionate about building responsive and user-focused web applications. My experience comes from a variety of real-world personal and in-house projects, where I've honed my skills in front-end development, backend integration, and deployment. Though I haven't worked in a corporate role yet, I approach each project with the mind-set of a professional — writing clean code, collaborating when needed, and continuously learning. I'm now looking to transition into a professional role where I can make an impact and keep growing.

COVER LETTER BY

BRIAN ADLAWAN

WEB DEVELOPER

Dear Hiring Manager's,

I'm writing to express my interest in a web development position at your company. While I do not have formal work experience in a company, I've spent a lot of time working on hands-on and in-house projects that helped me build real, functional applications.

I admire your company's reputation for innovation and professionalism, and I would be excited to be part of a team that values quality and creativity. I've attached my resume for your review, which includes several projects I've completed that reflect my technical skills and passion for web development.

I would appreciate the chance to learn more about your company and discuss how I might contribute. Please feel free to contact me by phone or email if you'd like to schedule a time to talk. I look forward to the opportunity to speak with you.

Sincerely,
